INTRODUCTION

Colour Antidote

With anxiety and uncertainty on the rise, making our homes our sanctuaries has become a priority. Now more than ever, we desire spaces that make us feel happy, well and safe.

Colour is a powerful remedy for our emotional conditions. It can uplift and relax us. It can envelop and cocoon us. It can reconnect us with nature and ourselves. Colour can bring stillness and tranquillity.

In this new world of unease and discord, let colour be the antidote.
